Tale of Four Stories

The front page of Tuesday's daily newspapers were full of similar news stories—bombings in Little Rock, Civil Rights Commission recommendations, teenage murders in New York City and former Mississippi Negro professor Clennon King's letter to Mr. Hodding Carter of the Greenville (Miss.) newspaper.

Each story showed a facet of the racial problem. King apparently learned, what many could have told him, that proportionately the Negro has far more friends in the South than in any other part of the country. This is particularly true when compared to those states, such as California, Michigan and New York, whose elected officials use the racial question to obtain office. While not bribery, dishonesty.

If the mayor of New York City, the United States Senators from the State of New York, the governor of the State of New York and most of the members of the United States House of Representatives from the State of New York would pay as much attention to the seven murders committed in a short period of time by teenagers in the City of New York (several racially connected) as they did to the one not-so-recent murder in Poplarville, perhaps Mississippi could be proud to be politically associated with the State of New York.

Maybe the five chief and the school board of Little Rock, Arkansas, are easily intimidated. We doubt it. But if so, perhaps those who threw bombs Monday night can temporarily gain a point. If these officials are the men we hope they are, those who did the bombing have nothing to gain except prizes and only furnish ammunition to people like Senator Jacob K. Javits of New York, Governor G. Warren Williams of Michigan, Chief Justice (a minor) Earl Warren or the extremists on the Civil Rights Commission.

The most serious of the stories Tuesday was the one dealing with the recommendations of the Civil Rights Commission. With the moralistic jargon used we can take no exception, since, like you and you and you, we are for motherhood and against sin. The moralistic diatribe is not the point at issue. The point at issue is essentially whether this country is a union of 50 states or whether there is no longer a union but a rape of the states by an essentially-and-comparable-to-Communist-philosophy central government.

No measure so far proposed in the Civil Rights category has failed to contain within itself the threat of a greater evil than it proposed to eliminate. While the response of some Southern legislators may have been politically motivated and extreme in phraseology, this paper believes they will stick to their position and hopes they can talk sense into the non-extremists from states like New Hampshire, New Mexico and S. Dakota. We have no hope in the case of the mentally dishonest groups from New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Illinois, California and their ilk.

Milk or soft drinks, and whose soft drinks? Bleachers or teaching materials? The county board of education has to decide these problems in connection with its newest school, North Central.

Milk at three cents a half-pint and teaching materials get our vote, but on a referendum we bet we'd lose.

The fact that this paper has agreed, and readily, to handle the applications of Hancock Countians for temporary jobs as census enumerators for the federal government is no indication of its political affiliation. From our August 13th issue we quote: "There may be some good reason for a strong Mississippi Republican Party (we can't think of one)"

But National Democratic Chairman Paul Butler may furnish one.

Your Life, Maybe

This week the people of Hancock County are being asked to give a greatly needed financial boost to the Hancock County Blood Bank. Indications are that the Blood Bank will succeed. If it does not, shame on the people of Hancock County.

On Wednesday of next week the people of Hancock County have the opportunity to give an even more important contribution to the blood bank—a pint of their blood. No matter how great the financial resources of an organization handling human blood may be, if the blood isn't there it cannot be used.

No one of us knows but what today, tonight or tomorrow we may need transfusions of whole blood in order to live. No one of us knows but that our child, our spouse or our parents may have such a need. If the blood isn't there we can't use it.

"The life you save may be your own"—if you won't give, why expect others to?

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

It was with mixed emotions that we packed our belongings and headed for this fine old city for a tour of duty at this Mississippi River town. It was quite a hectic experience as a few very close friends can vouch for. We arrived here a week ago today and are fairly well settled in Pelican Trailer Park, 2 1/2 miles south of Vicksburg Bridge on Highway 61.

We have to say from the depth of our hearts that the past two years and eight months have been most pleasant. Your hospitality has been most gracious; your friendship most warm. To our many friends we won't say goodbye for we hope to return to your fine community again soon.

We cannot say enough about your fine American Legion and auxiliary. We feel that your finest community spirit lies therein with these fine veterans, wives and children.

Your Methodist Church and pastor with whom we worshipped were most cordial. Also, the other denominations, of which we were acquainted throughout our stay, were the finest.

We know, as you know, that without industry for your fine community you cannot expect to grow as any normal wide-awake community should. To those who are more or less holding the reins, remove the bridle, hit the mule in the rear and go forward with progress. The same rug gets deeper each day. What's happening on the east side of the Gulf Coast can just as well happen on the west side. The potential is there. The finest people are there and industry is honest and wholesome for everyone.

We hope to return to Bay St. Louis to find an awakened Coast town with at least a majority working together for the things you elected officers promised you recently. Without your help they cannot so serve you as promised.

We're interested in your welfare. Because of your hospitality we became a part of you. Now as we stand on the sidelines we're rooting for you.

MR. AND MRS. J. F. "POLLY" GREEN, JAKE AND DEBBIE Vicksburg.

P.S. Please send us a subscription for 1 year to Sea Coast Echo. Thanks for everything!

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

An Associated Press dispatch last Friday said that President Eisenhower is visiting in Scotland. I hope he picks up a few ideas there for his next budget.

Editor, Sea Coast Echo:

I want to personally express my appreciation and that of the company I represent for the excellent write-up your paper of Aug. 20, 1959, carried. I know that to get all of this information with the picture must have required quite a bit of time and effort. For this we are most grateful.

I might add that your article and picture were reproduced and distributed from our Jackson office to our offices throughout this state.

by another hospital, explaining that much of the equipment used in the present structure would not have to be replaced in the new hospital.

The budget shows an increase of $2,780 per month for the new hospital period. Reboul said new staff needs will include three practical nurses, two registered nurses, three orderlies, two maids, three kitchen helpers, and three central office workers. He added that if the hospital could train some nurses' aides, the practical nurses would not be necessary. The nurses' aides would have to be trained approximately a month, Reboul said.

Trustees were assured by attorney Sam Favre Jr. that the budget could always be amended if estimates were too low.

The chain doctor of 52 claims totaled $3,221.59 for August, Reboul said. He added that the hospital funds had increased $1,344.32 during the month because of good collections and an increase of patients.

Heas was authorized to advertise in New Orleans and Jackson newspapers for a hospital administrator and the board adjourned until Sept. 22 when it will interview applicants for the post.

Some 38,000 Mississippians are stockholders in publicly owned corporations, according to recent reports. In the nation as a whole, shareowners now number 12,490,000 which is about twice as many as were reported in 1952. Ballots Sent Wool Farmers On Marketing Referendum

Any Hancock County wool or lamb producer who has not received a ballot for voting in the referendum this month, on the lamb and wool marketing development program, should obtain one at the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation county office in Bay St. Louis, Chairman Fitzhugh Lee of the ASC County Committee advises.

Ballots have been mailed to all producers who have been receiving payments under the wool played like pros in spite of a rough infield that was the cause of several men reaching first on bad hops. The evenness of the teams is attested by the box score in the first game. Each team made nine hits, three errors and had six men left on base.

Bad breaks marked the Georgi team throughout the game. Gus Aimes scored in the second inning after he hit safely and circled the bases when Roland Lafontaine was safe on an error. Another run was scored in the third when Pete Stegenga tripled, the longest hit of the game, and scored when Harold Pavolini was safe on a n error. Georgi staged a desperate rally in the fifth inning and appeared to be on the verge of victory with two more runs and two men on base but had luck continued to plague the Georgi team. Brownlee, dashing from second to third when Fayard came through with a hard hit line drive, was hit by the ball and was out to end the threat. Pitcher John Ladner retired the next six men in order to end the game.

Wednesday night's game started in a pitching and fielding duel with neither team scoring for three innings but things began to pop in the fourth when each scored a run. Trapani scored again in the fifth and put the game on ice with two runs in the sixth when Buddy Pitolo singled with a hard smash to right field, advanced to second on a hit by Monti. A clean single by Junior Geoffrey scored Pitolo and Monti.

Mrs. Theo Tudury, chairman of the Park and Playground Commission, expects the game tonight to be a thriller and invites everyone to attend. Admission is free and refreshments are available.

A splendid job of announcing over the public address system was done Tuesday by Speedy Rhodes and Benny Starita followed through with an equally efficient performance Wednesday.

Last Thursday Trapani gave the Youth Center team a shellacking to the tune of 17-2 to go into a tie for first place with Georgi while REA trounced KC 19-4 to end the regular season.

and lamb payment programs. Any producer not receiving a ballot should get in touch with the county office.

As large a vote as possible is desired in the referendum, Chairman Lee pointed out. The vote will determine whether or not deductions will continue to be made from payments under the wool incentive payment program. The funds obtained are used by the American Sheep Producers Council, Inc., an organization of sheepmen, to conduct a program of advertising, promotion, and related market development activities on lamb and wool under an agreement with the Secretary of Agriculture.

Deductions have been made at the rate of one cent per pound from shorn wool payments and five cent per hundredweight from unshorn lambs since 1955. Deductions under the three-year extension of the agreement should not exceed these rates.

Ballots may be voted any time during September. The long period of voting is aimed at encouraging as large a turnout as possible. Ballots may be mailed or delivered to the ASC county office on or before Sept. 30.

McCulloch reported that there are 83 employees in the system and approximately 1,500 students. He remarked that each student usually had two parents making 4,500 people directly interested in school affairs and that it was quite a problem dealing with so many people.

Construction of new metal fire escapes was discussed but it was found that the cost would be prohibitive unless other means of financing could be located. Trustee Maurice J. Artigues volunteered to check in New Orleans for used material and the matter was deferred until the next meeting.

McCulloch also reported that 16 new fire extinguishers were installed at a rental of $7 each a year. Trustee Robert Hamilton said that from his experience this was an efficient move; that the life of a fire extinguisher was about five years when they should be replaced because of acid erosion, at a cost of about $35 each. McCulloch also reported negotiations for a reduction in insurance rates.

Because of some confusion that resulted when a recent successful bidder said he had not been properly notified of the acceptance of his bid, Artigues asked that in the future all companies or individuals be notified in writing when their bids are accepted.

Wayne Alliston president, was absent because of illness and Dr. W. P. Henderson was named to preside.

Weston Becomes Bride of Raymond Bailey

The marriage of Weston and Bailey was celebrated at the First Baptist Church of Bay St. Louis, Miss., on Saturday, Sept. 5, at 7 p.m. The bride, Mrs. Weston, was given in marriage by her brother, John McColloch Weston of Jackson, Miss. The groom, Raymond Bailey, was a re-embroidered lace bodice having brief sleeves and a portrait neckline. A cap of lilies of the valley held her veil of silk illusion and she carried a bouquet of the same flowers.

Mrs. John Martin Fraering of New Orleans was her sister's matron of honor and only attendant. Her waltz length gown of sea-foam green silk organza was fashioned with a full skirt, a lace bodice with cap sleeves and bateau neckline. Her headpiece was a bandeau of the organza and yellow daisies. She carried a nosegay of the yellow daisies.

Albert M. Alexander Jr. of New Orleans was Mr. Bailey's best man. Groomsman was John Martin Fraering.

A small reception for the immediate family and out of town guests was held at the family home on South Beach Boulevard afterwards.

A profusion of white fall flowers and greenery adorned the reception rooms. The garden was illuminated with numerous hurricane candles. Flowers and greenery floated in the garden pool. The dining room table, covered with an heirloom flax linen and white cloth, held the wedding cake which was decorated with white flowers, flanked by antique silver candlesticks.

The bride's mother received her guests wearing a sheath gown of pale blue embroidered china silk with matching blue accessories and cream cymbidium orchids at the shoulder.

Later in the evening the couple left on a wedding trip to Nassau. The bride chose for travelling an ensemble of royal blue and black with a blue beaver hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of lilies of the valley.

Out of town guests here for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Ben L. Upton, Mr. and Mrs. Camille M. Fraering, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. MacDonald, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Fraering and children, Mr. and Mrs. Albert M. Alexander Jr., Mrs. W. Kent Talliefarro, Miss Susan Talliefarro, Mrs. W. J. Sonnemann, Miss Yvonne Sonnemann, Mrs. Harry Glover Sr., and David Glover, all of New Orleans; and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. McNutt of Gramercy, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas H. Holmes of Mobile, Ala.; and Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. Neiswender of Pensacola, Fla.

Mrs. Voight is Appointed Chairman for Pilgrimage

Preparations for one of the gala events of the spring season already are under way with the appointment last Thursday of Mrs. A. E. Voight as chairman of the Mississippi Gulf Coast Council of Garden Club's annual pilgrimage in the Bay-Waveland area.

The tour of some of the outstanding homes and gardens of the community is scheduled for Tuesday, March 22, somewhat later than last season in the hope more flowers will be in bloom.

The pilgrimage opens Saturday, March 12, at Pascagoula, the tourists moving along the coast and winding up their visits here. Homes and gardens in Biloxi will be on public view Sunday, March 12, at Gulfport Wednesday, March 17, and at Long Beach Sunday, March 20.

Pass Christian will not participate for the first time next spring, planning to hold its own pilgrimage with an admission charge but will continue its affiliation with the coast council. The council does not permit admission fees on the tours under its auspices.

Lagarde-Seuzeneau Vows Are Heard at Cathedral

St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans was the setting for the wedding at 10 a.m. Friday of Miss Jeanne Dennis Seuzeneau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Louis Seuzeneau Jr. of New Orleans and Bay St. Louis, and Donald Eugene LaGarde Jr. of New Orleans, son of Mr. and Mrs. LaGarde of Atlanta, Ga., formerly of New Orleans.

The Rev. Maurice Kennedy, C. S. R., officiated before an altar adorned with arrangements of white gladioli, pompon chrysanthemums and stock.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of magnolia white silk tulle, the moulded bodice of peau de ange lace heavily encrusted with seed pearls fashioned with a scooped neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The bouffant skirt was designed on princess lines with inserted pleats which swept into a court length train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a half cap of matching lace embroidered with seed pearls and she wore a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom. She carried a spray bouquet of sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor for her sister was Miss Dianne Manon Seuzeneau while the groom's sister, Mrs. Matthew L. Virden III of Greenville was matron of honor. Miss Dennis Celestine Seuzeneau, another sister of the bride, was bridesmaid while Miss Vallon Irene Seuzeneau, also a sister, was junior bridesmaid.

They wore patio length gowns of smoke blue organza with bouffant skirts and fitted bodices finished with double shawl collars. They carried nosegays of pale pink sweetheart roses and carnations with circlets of roses in their hair.

Best man was the groom's brother, Robert Edward Lagarde of Atlanta, while serving as groomsmen were Maurice F. Hatrell Jr. and August Hoffmann Douglas Jr. Usbering were Pierre J. Stouse Jr., John Henry Weston of New Orleans and Bay St. Louis, George L. Seuzeneau Jr., brother

Dinner Fetes Holy Name Fair Workers

The Holy Name Society of St. Clare's Catholic Church entertained all workers at its recent fair Saturday night with a dinner at the parish hall during which the Rev. M. J. Costello, pastor, received a $4,000 check from Sterling A. Balaski, society president, for funds raised by the endeavor.

Father Costello presented John F. Auderer jr., past president, with a gold St. Christopher's medal, inscribed in appreciation for his constant and continual efforts in upbuilding the Waveland parish and dated by the pastor.

Fifty-nine workers attended the turkey dinner and each was thanked for his cooperation in the fair by Balaski who expressed the hope next year's fair will be even more successful. The dinner was prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Dave Makey, Mrs. Charles Ferry, Mrs. John Auderer jr. and Mrs. Balaski.

the Sharp Trader

buys at better than wholesale

...because he buys where his bread is buttered

A REAL sharp trader doesn't need "connections" or "special discounts" or catalogs, or any other gimmick to get what he buys at BETTER than wholesale.

Maybe you think we're kidding?

Not at all. It's a fact. When you BUY in the community you LIVE in, you know that every cent you pay for goods and services above wholesale cost stays here at home with you. By staying here, it can get around to buying MORE good things for you and your family.

It's trading material . . . and TRADE ALONE builds communities with better opportunities, better schools, better churches, better neighbors.

Any ONE of these advantages could bring you returns beyond measure in a BETTER LIFE, as well as real CASH returns in the form of increased business, improved property values, a better job, more people to help you carry the load of normal community expense.

All of this — which you don't get for your money when you buy somewhere else — makes the cost of the actual GOODS very low . . . when you buy them at home.

That's how the SHARP TRADERS get BETTER than wholesale values.
